LEXINGTON STAKE ENTRIES

ELIGIBLES ANNOUNCED FOR COMING MEETING OF KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION.

Twenty Fillies in List for Ashland Oaks, Scheduled for Revival After Long Lapse-Seventy-five Eligibles for Breeders' Futurity.

Lexington, Ky., January 20.—Because of the pressure of other business and lack of time, Secretary G. D. Wilson was unable until this week to take account of the January payments to the four carly closing stakes for the coming spring meeting of the Kentucky Association. He finds that, while probably not so numerous as in former years, there is much quality among the eligibles.

The Ashland Oaks, for three-year-old fillies at one mile, which is to have its first running since 1896 is worth $1.460 at the present time and starters from among the following twenty that remained leigible are to pay $75 each: Azylade, Sprite, Wondawhy, Lady Lightning, Ursula Emma, Merode, Bachelor Girl, Rose of Jeddah, Miss Wiggs, Tillie's Nightmare, Salesia, Star Jasmine, Bay Cliff, Polly D., Lucille B. L., Foretop, Bessie Frank, Belle Nelson, Baby Doll and Beautiful. Some great mares won the Ashland Oaks, Peru in 1879 was the first and there followed in succession Lavacca, Lucy May, Issie, Vera, Highflight, Ida Hope, dead heat between Pure Ryc and Mary Ann, Florimore, Hyporite, Jewel Ban, Camilla, Ethel Unadilla, Monrovia, Queenlike H., Hessie and Myrtle Harkness. The revival of this historic stake is bound to carry a great deal of interest.

The Blue Grass Stakes, for three-year-olds at one mile and an eighth, in the first running of which last spring Governor Gray and Meridian came together for the first time and had the memorable battle in which the Garry Herrmann gelding got house half a length in front, setting a new track record at 1:51\s. has eighteen eligibles, including all of the best two-year-old colts of 1911, as follows: The Manager, Worth, Sonada, Sprite, Phil K., Presumption, Tommic Thompson, Praetorian, Wheelwright, Spring Board, Ursula Emma, Lewis, Duvai, Sir Blaise, Bonanza, Nielas, Mark A. # TRACK VIRTUALLY FINISHED

ONLY SEVERE STORM WILL CAUSE FURTHER POSTPONEMENT AT CHARLESTON.

Course to Be Turned Over to the Horsemen Today-Light Fields Expected at Beginning Because of Lack of Training Facilities.

Charleston, S. C., January 20.—"A repetition of last week's severe weather is the only contingency that may prevent the opening of Palmetto Park for its seventy-five days of racing," said General Manager F. J. Pons today, Continuing, Mr. Pons said:
"The track is rapidly shaping into good condition and will be completed by noon tomorrow, when opportunity will be afforded the horsemen to gallop their horses over it."

Inspection of the course, particularly the bad spot on the lower turn, leads one to coincide in Mr. Pons' conviction that the track will be in fair shape for the opening, unless a heavy rain storm again retards the work. Several owners this afternoon amounced that they would work some of their horses over the entire circuit of the course tomorrow. They deem the track safe and unhesitatingly say that it will be in fair condition to race over by Wednesdty. There are some skeptics who entertain a contrary view, but it is practically certain that Mr. Pons will open the course next Wednesday, if no heavy rain falls in the meantime. Only a stretch of about seventy yards of the track remains to be leveled and this will be accomplished before noon tomorrow. The unfinished portion is the part where most of the fill had to be made.

According to some horsemen, only a few of the horses here will be in a backward condition, as training has been going on on the numerous roads adjacent to the course and on the half-mile ring adjoining the racing grounds. The entries for the opening days are expected to be light, but the beginning of the following week will find conditions greatly improved.

The horses that recently arrived here from Columbia are for the most part in racing condition in consequence of the excellent facilities that were available at that track after the meeting came to a close.

Jack Kelly, who brought the four-year-old maldout.

available at that track after the meeting came to a close.

Jack Kelly, who brought the four-year-old maiden Universal from New York for William Lakeland, transferred the colt to Palmetto Park this morning. The horsemen here are in a quandary as to what scale of weights will be adopted for the meeting. The Jockey Club provides no scale for the months of December, January and February, and it is presumed that the scale in use on the Florida tracks during the past few years will be followed.

This meeting is said to be the first, by the way, that has ever been licensed by the Jockey Club during the winter months.

The Jockey Club's forfeit list for 1911 was received by the officials of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association this morning. It amounts to something like $500 and few of the horsemen that are on the lists are here.

A blanket application for reinstatement of the horsemen who participated in the recent meeting at Columbia has been sent to the Jockey Club and personal applications by the horsemen will follow on Monday.

J. W. Hedrick purchased the aged gelding Sir Ed.

horsemen who participated in the recent meeting at Columbia has been sent to the Jockey Club and personal applications by the horsemen will follow on Monday.

J. W. Hedrick purchased the aged gelding Sir Edward of J. H. Sheldon yesterday and will probably turn the horse over to William Barrett to train. The rest of Mr. Hedrick's horses will leave Norfolk for here next week.

F. Gering has secured names for the following two-year-olds:
Little Dad. ch. c, by Cesarion—Fatty.
Capt. Heck, ch. c, by Transvaal—Margaret Roach.
J. G. Greener has a two-year-old in J. W. May's stable named Zwingli, by Ivan the Terrible—Ocayna. Mr. May is associated with C. T. Worthington in the ownership of Pericles, brother to the good race horse, Priscillan, by Hastings—St. Priscilla.
Jack Sheehan, who recently came from Memphis, brings a story that the merchants of that bustling cliy are making efforts for a resumption of racing and expect to have a regival of the sport

Jack Sheehan, who recently came from Memphis, brings a story that the merchants of that bustling city are making efforts for a resumption of racing and expect to have a revival of the sport the coming spring. Montgomery Park is no longer available for the purpose, but Billings Park could be utilized. Mr. Sheehan stated that T. P. Hayes was recently in Memphis looking over Billings Park, supposedly representing some influential interests with a view to arranging a short meeting. There has been talk from time to time about the possibility of a resumption of racing in Memphis and it is reported that the municipal authorities will interpose no obstacles for a short high class meeting. The New Orleans delegation continue sanguine that the tracks in the Crescent City will resume operations next season. They base their hopes on the fact that the two candidates for governor are practically pledged for racing.

Frank Bruen, assistant to John Hachmeister and auditor of the association here, was lately in receipt of a letter from his chief in which Mr. Hachmeister announces his intention of leaving Cincinnati next week for Naples, Fla., where he will spend some time in company with George M. Hendrie and Walter Parmer, fishing and hunting. It is the intention of Mr. Hachmeister to return to Cincinnati early in March to take up his duties pertaining to the spring meetings at Latonia and Douglas Park, Jockey J. McIntyre has arrived from Junarez.

F. J. Pons announces that the admission to Paimetto Park has been definitely fixed at $2 for men and $1 for women.

One of the most pleasing pieces of news in connection with the arrival of R. F. Carman's string of twenty-six horses at Charleston is that his good horse the Turk, which went wrong shortly after Mr. Carman purchased him from W. S. Fanshawe a year ago last summer, will be able to stand training again. The Turk went wrong in his three-year-old career, when he was considered one of the best of his age in this country.

DEBATING VIRGINIA BETTING BILL.

Norfolk, Va., January 20.—The Stephenson antigambling bill, aimed at the Jamestown Jockey Clubraces, is occupying the attention of the Legislature at Richmond.

The bill will, if adopted in its entirety, prohibit betting on anything in Virginia. The bill provides a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for twelve months for each violation. It prohibits the playing of any game for money and makes it unlawful to wager on a horse race, prize fight, basebull game, boat race or any other athletic or sporting contest exampling else.

Efforts to defer action on the bill have met with strong opposition and the prospects are that the debate will continue for several days before a vote is taken. Governor Mann, who did his best to prevent the last meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club, is said to be using his influence to have the bill passed so as to eliminate horse racing in the state.

It is believed that the bill will be amended so as

It is believed that the bill will be amended so as to make it apply exclusively to horse racing by eliminating that part imposing a fine and imprison-ment for playing any game for money.

POOR DAY FOR FAVORITES AT JUAREZ.

Tourist Only First Choice to Score-New Capital Is Winner at 20 to 1.

El Paso, Tex., January 20.—Favorites fared badly in all but one race at Juarez this afternoon. Tourist was the lone first choice to connect with the winning end of a purse, although Phil Connor, winner of the opening dash, was held at the same odds as several of the other contestants. The racing was sepirited in the main.

A big surprise was sprung in the fifth race when New Capital, beld at the odds of twenty to one, defeated Heretic and Onatassa. New Capital is from the stable of W. E. Cotton and had been running poorly in recent races, which made his performance today the more remarkable.

The attendance was large and the sport is gaining in popularity with each succeeding week.

Marsand, winner of the sixth race, was bid up $200 over his entered price of $300 by W. A. McKinney.

E. Kessinger of Texas arrived today with two head of horses.

Coppertown, favorite for the last race, was so sharply interfered with by Annua! Interest just as he was moving up to the front that he was eliminated from the contest entirely.

ARRANGING MASSACHUSETTS MEETINGS.

New York, January 20.—Frank J. Bryan, secretary of the Hunts Committee of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, has returned from Boston, where he went to arrange the program for the Country Club's Brookline meeting next summer. The Massasoit Cup, for maiden bona fide hunters owned by members of recognized hunts of New England, is a new race that will be carded for the Country Club's coming meeting. On one of the off days, during the Country Club meeting, an invitation meeting will be held at A. Henry Higgin son's beautiful estate at Lincoln, Mass. Mr. Higginson's grounds in Middlesex County, close to Boston, are ideal for steeplechasing. On account of its proximity to Brookline, the program at Lincoln will be well balanced with horses of good caliber.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

After a fine weather trip of thirty days the steamer Kish arrived at Sydney, Australia, with Irving H. Wheatcroft's horses. Out of 159 animals five died at sea and one just after reaching port. They were shipped from Vancouver, B. C.

They were supped from Vancouver, B. C.

The first foal of the season, a fine colt by Red Fox, is reported from Messrs. Dyment's Brookdale Farm at Barrie. His dam is the Riley mare Grandma II., and one obvious name for a colt of this breeding is Foxy Grandpa.—Toronto Globe.

NATIONAL REMOUNT LEAGUE PROPOSED.

Organization Advocated by Army Officers May Be Formed by American Breeders.

New York, January 20.—Breeders of thoroughbreds are interested just now in the formation of a National Remount League, with branches in nearly every state in the Union. The movement, long discussed by army officers and others interested in providing horses of good quality for the cavalry, artilizery and other branches of Uncle Sam's service, has been inaugurated in the State of Missouri with the encouragement and support of militiamen, army officers, breeders and patriotic citizens, who will organize a bureau of breeding on the lines of the glockey Club's bureau in this state. It is understood that several stallions with royal blood in their veins will be donated to the Missouri Remount League, which will assume control of a new industry in the breeding line.

The recent statement by Gen, Leonard Wood of the army relating to the decadence of the thoroughbred industry and the consequent lack of suitable mounts for the Government war forces was the signal for the launching of the Missouri league and also caused enthusiasm in other states. California, for instance, will be found in line with a similar organization in the near future. The breeders on the costs and the army officers in San Francisco are anxious to work in harmony. Such wealthy patrons of the turf as A. B. Spreckles and Thomas II. Williams are ready to subscribe for the establishment of a remount league in California, where the American thoroughbreds' value is generally recognized.

merican thoroughbreds' value is generally recognized.

Virginia and Kentucky are expected to join in the new movement. In Virginia the government has a breeding farm at Front Royal, where the famous stallions Henry of Navarre and Octagon, donated by August Belmont, are standing, H. T. Oxnard has a large establishment in Virginia, among the great stallions being the famous King James, Kentucky, with numerous breeding farms, is believed to be the best place for a remount league. With such an organization in operation it is believed that the service of some of the greatest stallions and brood marks in the world may be obtained.

That a remount league will be formed in this state there is little doubt. In fact, leading military men have become interested and have received encouragement from the Jockey Club, it is said, in the shape of a promise that the State Breeding Bureau will be at their disposal. With leagues formed in half a dozen states, it will be time to organize a national remount league, possibly with headquarters in Washington, D. C., which it is thought will be closely affiliated with the War Department in carrying out the ideas of General Wood and others as to providing horses of quality for the army. August Belmont, who was among the first to advocate the breeding of thoroughbreds for the army and who practically started the movement by turning over several stallions to the government, when asked about the remount leagues aid yesterday:

"The movement has been started in Missouri and in due time it will spread all over the United States. The need of first-class horses in the army and millita has become generally recognized and it will not be long before a national remount league has been organized. Patriotic citizens have become deeply interested in the American thoroughbred to such an extent that the subject is growing to be a great economic question. Other nations are devoting time and money to the development of remounts and this country cannot afford to be excelled in this respect."

The Jockey Club's bureau in this state has been in this respect."

The Jockey Club's bureau in this state has been in existence several years and at present nearly twenty stallions of quality are stationed in various counties. The bureau has produced some excellent results and if it is operated in conjunction with a state or national remount league it is believed that

F. M. C., Chicago. The distance of the race in-quired about was incorrectly sent out from the track but errors as to distances do not affect bets and are at the bettor's risk.

Chas, C., St. Louis, Mo. The Don Diego racing at Juarez is a bay gelding by Henry of Navarre—Bella Dona and is the Don Diego that ran third to Glorifier and Roseben in the Carter Haudicap of 1907.

C. K., Cincinnati, O. In racing parlance the term "a length" is usually considered to be about ten feet, which as a matter of fact is greatly in excess of the actual length of a horse. The distance covered in a second by a horse at full speed depends on the pace. For instance, in going a mile in 1:40 it is at the rate of 52.80 feet per second, while in going the same distance in 1:38 it is at the rate of 53.88 feet a second.

NO WAIVING OF FORFEITS.

New York, January 20.—When President John Marshall of the Charleston Fair and Racing Association made his application for a license and dates for the Charleston meeting, it was assured that it would be acted upon favorably, but it was not known whether or not there would be a rigid interpretation of the rule for the collection of forfeits. In fact, the general impression prevailed that the collection of these forfeits would be waived in the interests of the sport.

This proved erroneous. The rules are all to be applied to the coming meeting at Charleston, and that includes the collection of these forfeits, It has been estimated that probably not more than ten or a dozen of the owners who will race at Charleston are on the forfeit list, but each one, under the rules, will have to settle before being eligible to race over the new course.

The question of the forfeits was one of the serious matters, in the opinion of horsemen, but the issuance of the license and the approval of the dates carries with it no exemption from this regulation.
